Repair

"I want people to leave feeling inspired by my strength, my courage, and my experiences. I also want to equip them with tools for success they can apply to their everyday lives."

Recreate

"I want women to look at my life and my testimony as a true example of resilience and strength. I want people to understand that there truly is life after death. Getting on the right path to building your better self through prayer, forgiveness, determination, and obtaining peace — is possible."

Restore

"Generational curses and things that may happen at a young age doesn't define your future. Your beginning doesn't determine your end."
